

NEW JERSEY CITY UNIVERSITY

LEADERSHIP SYMPOSIUM

Wednesday, April 10th 2013

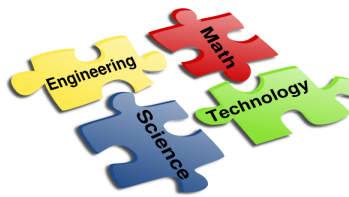

Gothic Lounge, Hepburn Hall, Room 202

4:00pm – 7:00pm

Special Guest Speaker: Dr. Roger A. Mitchell, NJ State Chief Medical Examiner

Dr. Roger A. Mitchell, Jr. leads the Medical Examiner Service in New Jersey as the Assistant State Medical Examiner in Charge of the Northern and Southern Regional Medical Examiner Offices. He has performed over 1200 autopsy examinations in his career. As a native of New Jersey, Dr. Mitchell believes the medical examiner serves a critical role in public health prevention initiatives and continues to be at the forefront of issues relating to Elder Abuse & Neglect and Youth Violence.

The STEM Leadership Symposium is an exciting opportunity for students to network with Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics (STEM) professionals and faculty. A panel discussion with students, staff, faculty and STEM professionals will engage the topics that are relevant to this specific population. Come learn about leadership and career development as well as the many resources available to students entering STEM-related fields.

Open to all. Space is limited, Registration is strongly recommended.

You can register for the Symposium here: http://web.njcu.edu/checkbox_box/www/NJCUSTEMSymposium.aspx
