New Jersey City University
Department of Educational Leadership

Requirements for Supervisor (P - 12) Certification
N.J.A.C.6A:9-12.6

Based on NJAC 6A:9-12.6, the following are the requirements necessary to obtain certification as a Supervisor:

- A Master's Degree in any educational program
- A standard New Jersey teacher's certificate and/or educational services
- A minimum of 3 years successful full-time teaching experience under the appropriate standard teaching certificate and/or 3 years successful full-time educational services experience under the appropriate standard educational services certificate

And the following 4 courses (12 credits):

1. EDLD 660 - Principles of Supervision & Human Resource Management
3. EDLD 646 - Innovations in Curriculum & Educational Leadership
4. EDLD 669 - Measurement & Supervision of Learning & Teaching

Matriculated students in the following degree programs ECE, EDTC, LTED, MCC, and MDT, may substitute the following courses for EDLD 646 (Curriculum Elective) and EDLD 669 (Supervision Elective)

Curriculum Elective substitution approved by your advisor:
EDTC 625 - Using Integrated Software across the Curriculum
MCC 623 - Contemporary Issues in Bilingual Curriculum Development
MDT 602 - Curriculum Development in Music Education

Supervision Elective substitution approved by your advisor:
EDLD 665 - Personnel, Supervision & Staff Development
ECE 666 - Supervision in Early Childhood
LTED 667 - Administration & Supervision of School Reading Programs
MDT 603 - Administration and Supervision in Music Education
EDTC 661 - Administration and Supervision of Educational Media Centers
EDTC 631 - Administration and Supervision of Technology in Educational Settings

For more information contact: Department of Educational Leadership
(201) 200 - 3493

Rev. 12/14/15