Professor David Weiss Appointed to IMI Board

Jersey City, 8 January 2021—This week, Professor David Weiss joined the International Mediation Institute (IMI) Board. As the IMI Board bid farewell to members László Monlár, Karl Hennessee, and Michael McIlwrath, they welcomed Angela Herberholz, Laila Ollapally, James Mangerere, and Professor Weiss.

IMI is a non-profit charity registered in The Hague, and it is the only organization in the world of its kind. No other mediation institute maintains a vision and mission for international mediation. They strive to disseminate information about mediation as a profession, as well as develop and promote global mediation standards. Through the implementation of various programs such as the Global Pound Conference Series, IMI seeks to improve mediation standards around the world. One of the IDR's most highly regarded missions is the promotion of cross-border communication, so we could not be more excited about Professor Weiss's involvement with such a globally minded organization.

Professor Weiss had a few words to say about his new position: "I am excited to be appointed to the International Mediation Institute (IMI), a prestigious global platform that advances the importance of mediation internationally for global initiatives that include facilitation of cross border business and foreign direct investment."

Congratulations to Professor Weiss on behalf of the rest of the IDR team.
