SUBJECT: New Jersey City University Tort Act Letter

To Whom It May Concern:

The State of New Jersey does not carry public liability insurance, but the liability of the State and the obligation of the State to be responsible for tort claims against its employees is covered under the terms and provisions of the New Jersey Tort Claims Act (NJSA 59:1-1, et seq.) and the New Jersey Charitable Immunity Act (NJSA 2A:53A-7, et seq.).

The Tort Claims Act also creates a fund that provides for payment of claims under the Act against the State of New Jersey or against its employees for which the State is obligated to indemnify against tort claims, which arise out of the performance of their duties.

Claims against the State of New Jersey or its employees should be referred to the State of New Jersey, Division of Risk Management, P.O. Box 620, Trenton, NJ 08625.
