Reading Your Credit Evaluation

Types Of Credit

1. Direct Equivalent Credit – A course covers the same material and topics as a NJCU course and receives a direct equivalent. (ex. MGMT 235)
2. Departmental Elective Credit – This type of credit is awarded when NJCU does not offer a similar course from the same department. (ex. MGMT 2XX)
3. General Elective Credit – This type of credit is awarded when a course is transferrable, but NJCU does not have a corresponding department. (ex. TRNS100)
4. No Credit – Courses that are vocational, remedial, do not meet minimum grade requirements, from a non-regionally accredited institution, or after review are considered non-transferrable and will not receive any credit.
