

Who We Are; What We Do

The mission of the Congressman Frank J. Guarini Library is to provide service and materials to the students, faculty, staff and community in support of the curriculum and other educational objectives of New Jersey City University, including the learning outcomes for Information Literacy. The library especially supports Goals 1 and 2 of the NJCU Strategic Plan.

The Library reports to the Division of Academic Affairs.

- Visited by 190,428 individuals
- Homepage: 79,825 users initiated 151,900 sessions with 324,359 page views
- Library catalog: 20,020 users initiated 58, 432 sessions with 1 million page views
- Remote Access: 3788 unique users initiated 109,000 sessions with 3.42 million page views
- Taught 212 bibliographic instruction classes reaching 4338 students
- Answered over 32,000 questions
- Processed 2085 volumes into the collection
- Housed 300,000 paper volumes along with another 300,000+ electronic volumes
- Provided access to 35,000 periodicals through 152 databases
- Opened 81.5 hours per week with extended hours for finals
- Maintain Facebook, Twitter, Instagram accounts as well as two blogs