

COMPUTER SCIENCE, BS

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the Computer Science BS program, students will be able to:

1. Ability to apply knowledge of software Engineering principles in the modeling, design and development of software project
2. Analysis, design and development of web-based real-life large scale software system
3. Demonstrate the ability to orally communicate ideas and concepts.
4. Demonstrate the ability to write clear system documentation, user documentation and research reports.
5. Recognize key ethical issues affecting computer science and their responsibility as computer science professionals